To whom it may concern:

The enclosed manifesto is one that the Church Ladies for Choice of New York City (there are other C.L.F.C. groups in other cities!) handed out to over ten thousand Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and transgendered individuals at last summer's March on Washington. The national data bank of clinic defense groups that is listed on it is one of our projects that the National Organization of Women is helping us with.

For the past three years, the Church Ladies for Choice/NY have been bringing the spirit of humor and empowerment to defenders and activists with our drag driven critique of the patriarchy. If you've been involved with the reproductive rights community here in New York in any way, you must of heard of us.

Anyway, what we would like, and it would be very, very nice, is just some public space to erect an alter to reproductive freedoms (everyone's). This, of course, would feature us, and that may sound a little bit proud, but like one of our favorite female to male transvestites, Mary Martin, we feel we've gotta' crow. Bless you for your attention and graciousness.

Love and Choice,

Harmonie Moore

THE CHURCH LADIES FOR CHOICE

All across this great country of ours, queers are on the front line of the struggle for absolute reproductive freedom for all women. Arise with a resounding cry of and join your local clinic defenders as they stand up to the weekly onslaughts of the religiously challenged. Escorts and defenders are needed to ensure that women's health facilities remain safe and open to all, no matter how many psycho-christians attempt to krazy-glue themselves to the front door.

Now isn't that SPECIAL!

Contact National NOW's Project Stand Up for Women at 1000 16th St., NW, Washington DC, 20036, (202) 331-0066 to find out who organizes clinic defense in your area.

The Church Ladies for Choice lift spirits and provide comic relief to clinic defenders. We are the U.S.O. of the clinic defense movement - the cheerleaders of choice. New York's Church Ladies are pleased as punch to be an affinity group of WHAM! NYC.

WHAM! Women's Health Action and Mobilization is a direct action group committed to demanding, securing, and defending absolute reproductive freedom and quality healthcare for all women.

To get your Church Ladies for Choice starter kit, contact WHAM! NYC at, P.O. Box 733, New York, NY 10009 (212) 713-5966

What? 18 minutes of solid Church Ladies for Choice video revival viewing on one glorious VHS tape! Praise the Almighty, how do I get my own copy of those fabulously frocked gals singing some of their "choicest" melodies inter-cut with snippets of our polyester clad protectors in action! Could it be as easy as sending a 20 dollar donation to WHAM! Women's Health Action and Mobilization of NYC? Of course it is! Very, very nice, indeed!

Dear Sally Hall,

Need it be said that on the day the letter arrived stating that New York City's Church Ladies for Choice had been selected to participate in the Queer Space Show, they were made happier than Lorena Bobbitt with a brand new Ginzu (the knife that never needs sharpening!). And just as the Sodomites worked round the clock, night and day, to bequeath to this world their invention of sodomy, so have we been ever diligent in the formulation of our Altar.

Enclosed is a basic sketch of the base Altarpiece to be built by Harmonie Moore and onto which the other Ladies will "decorate". As you can see, it is simply an upstanding box (to support a central text) with shelves on either side so as to hold the Ladie's various "decorative" inputs. Again, this is a structure to be built by one of the Ladies and overlayed with meaning by the other Ladies. They have been informed that what they add is to focus, of course, on reproductive freedoms.

The fragility of the decorative and sacrificial items that the other Ladies might include is of concern, so the feeling that the Altar be placed out-of-doors, exposed to the elements, may not be the best. The Ladies are open to suggestions.

For placement, the Church Ladies would appreciate being able to buttress their Altar up against a large, flat wall space onto which they can wheatpaste various biblical texts with accompanying illustrations, so as to invite gallery patrons, with the ample supply of crayons provided on either side of the altar, to color and recontextualize to their spirit's content. Also on the wall, intermixed with the bible passages, will be special large graphics of a ladie's handbag with the text, "God Is A Lesbian," surrounding it. This will go part and parcel with the Church Ladies for Choice's summertime "God Is A Lesbian" campaign (all running concurrently with Stonewall 25 and the Gay "and Lesbian" Games). With the help of WHAM! (Women's Health Action and Mobilization) volunteers, we plan to blanket the city of New York with large photocopies of our "God Is A Lesbian" handbag graphic - feverishly wheatpasting it everywhere!

With your help, this is what the Ladies hope to set into motion. Given more to the need of the situation (that we don't have complete repro freedom in this country) than we are to academics or theory, we hope this in someway addresses your need for us to address 'space'. Let's face it though, we're drag queens, and our vaguest notion of space is that that's what high heels lift you up into. Okay, so the Church Ladies only wear sensible shoes. We add the required extra height with our hats. Hats that anyone of the Ladies might choose to use as her personal "decor" on the Altar. Okay, identity politics aren't space, but . . .

FEAR NOT! their decorating skills, for all the Ladies are at their best when improvising. It's what we live for.

FEAR NOT! the messages conveyed by the Church Ladies constructions, for they will mock convention. Graciously.

FEAR NOT! that our project will go uncompleted, but do give us a firm timetable of deadlines (and such) as several in our membership are dealing with personal health issues that, for all of us, take precedence. We'll get this thing done, it's just a matter of timing.

A deadline beats the divine in terms of inspiration everytime!
